

Almighty Father, your Son was revealed in majesty before he suffered death upon the cross: give us grace to perceive his glory, that we may be strengthened to suffer with him and be changed into his likeness, from glory to glory; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from Exodus (24.12-18)

The Lord said to Moses, 'Come up to me on the mountain, and wait there; and I will give you the tablets of stone, with the law and the commandment, which I have written for their instruction.' So Moses set out with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up into the mountain of God. To the elders he had said, 'Wait here for us, until we come to you again; for Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a dispute may go to them.' Then Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. The glory of the Lord settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days; on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the cloud. Now the appearance of the glory of the Lord was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the sight of the people of Israel. Moses entered the cloud, and went up on the mountain. Moses was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalms 2

1 Why are the / nations in / tumult: and why do the peoples de/vise a / vain / plot?

2 The kings of the earth rise up, and the rulers take / counsel to/ gether: against the Lord / and a/gainst his a/nointed:

3 'Let us break their / bonds a/sunder: and / cast a/way their / cords from us.'

4 He who dwells in heaven shall / laugh them to / scorn: the Lord shall / have them / in de/rision.

5 Then shall he speak to them / in his / wrath: and / terrify them / in his / fury:

6 'Yet have I / set my / king: upon my / holy / hill of / Zion.'

7 I will proclaim the de/cree of the / Lord: he said to me: 'You are my Son; this / day have / I be/gotten you.

8 Ask of me and I will give you the nations for / your in/heritance: and the ends of the / earth for / your pos/session.

9 You shall break them with a / rod of / iron: and dash them in pieces / like a / potter's / vessel.'

10 Now therefore be / wise, O / kings: be prudent, you / judges / of the / earth.

11 Serve the Lord with fear, and with trembling / kiss his / feet: lest he be angry and you perish from the way, for his / wrath is / quickly / kindled.

12 Happy / are all / they: who / take / refuge in / him.

A reading from 2 Peter (1.16-21)

We did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received honour and glory from God the Father when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, saying, 'This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.' We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain. So we have the prophetic message more fully confirmed. You will do well to be attentive to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. First of all you must understand this, that no prophecy of scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation, because no prophecy ever came by human will, but men and women moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to St Matthew (17.1-9)

Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. Then Peter said to Jesus, 'Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will make three dwellings here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.' While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud a voice said, 'This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!' When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, 'Get up and do not be afraid.' And when they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone. As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, 'Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

Holy God, we see your glory in the face of Jesus Christ: may we, who are partakers at his table, reflect his life in word and deed, that all the world may know his power to change and save. This we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
