

Sunday 15th June 2025 Trinity Sunday

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity and in the power of the divine majesty to worship the Unity: keep us steadfast in this faith, that we may evermore be defended from all adversities; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from Proverbs (8.1-4, 22-31)

Does not wisdom call, and does not understanding raise her voice? On the heights, beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand; beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries out: 'To you, O people, I call, and my cry is to all that live. 'The Lord created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of long ago. Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth – when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world's first bits of soil. 'When he established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, then I was beside him, like a master worker; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race.'

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 8

1 O / Lord our / governor: how glorious is your / name in / all the / world!

2 Your majesty above the / heavens is / praised: out of the / mouths of / babes at the / breast.

3 You have founded a stronghold a/gainst your / foes: that you might still the / enemy / and the a/venger.

4 When I consider your heavens, the / work of your / fingers: the moon and the / stars that / you have or/dained,

5 What is man, that you should be / mindful / of him: the son of man, that / you should / seek him / out?

6 You have made him little / lower • than the / angels: and / crown him with / glory and / honour.

7 You have given him dominion over the / works of your / hands: and put / all things / under his / feet,

8 All sheep and oxen, even the wild / beasts of the / field: the birds of the air, the fish of the sea * and whatsoever / moves • in the / paths of the / sea.

9 O / Lord our / governor: how glorious is your / name in / all the / world!

A reading from Romans (5.1-5)

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to St John (16.12-15)
Glory to you, O Lord.

'I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

Almighty and eternal God, you have revealed yourself as Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and live and reign in the perfect unity of love: hold us firm in this faith, that we may know you in all your ways and evermore rejoice in your eternal glory; holy and eternal Trinity, one God, now and for ever. Amen.
